RONEY'S BOYS CONCERT COMPANY

At the Epworth Church on Friday Night.

Special Matinee Concert for School Children During the Afternoon.

There are many people in the city who will remember with a great deal of pleasure the appearance of Roney's Boys, under the auspices of the local high school, here in the city, some five or six years ago.

There were more requests to the committee which has this year's course in hand to have the Roney's Boys return this season, than for any other attraction which has appeared here formerly.

The matinee has been arranged that all the boys and girls may be permitted to see the great possibilities of childhood, in a musical way, and should prove to be a great object lesson to both old and young.

The following are a few of the mentions which have been made of this company by the press of other towns:

"Roney's Boys," the entertainment provided for the six hundred and fifty teachers of York county attending the institute, and the general public, is conceded to have been the most pleasing and best attraction ever offered for the teachers. It was magnificent, and "Roney's Boys" it can safely be said, will linger long in the memories of those in attendance after everything about the institute has been forgotten. Their voices impressed and their training superb.— York (Pa.) Gazette.

Hundreds were unable to secure admission to Massey Hall, and the little fellows had to be carried over the heads of the crowd outside to get in at the Victoria street entrance—Toronto (Can.) News.

Very sweet, true and beautiful; without a flat note, discord or unpleasant perceptible. Their singing is phenomenal, and it is little wonder that a perfect ovation greeted the youngsters.

This attraction appears here Friday in a matinee at 3:30 p. m., and in the evening at eight o'clock at Epworth M. E. Church.

The fee to the matinee is only ten cents, and a big crowd is expected.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism

Do you know that rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this, just try one application of Chamber-you relief from pain but will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism. For sale by all druggists.

Intended to Have Revenge.

New York, Jan. 30.—The district attorney of Richmond county has received two letters believed to have been written by John Bell, the man suspected of the murder of Dr. Townsend, to his brother and sister in Brooklyn and mailed on Thursday, the day before the murder. In one of them Bell wrote that he intended to commit suicide, declared that Dr. Townsend had caused his wife's death by neglect and that he intended to have revenge.

CLEVER HEAVY WEIGHT

Wrestler Who Meets Fred Bartl Friday Night.

Has Made a Saug Fortune on the Mat—Over Six Feet Tall and One of the Best Men in the Game

Under the heading of "Olson the Kangaroo Wrestler of St.
Louis, who has made a Comfortable Fortune out of the Mat Game," the St. Louis Post-Dispatch of January 28th has the following interesting story about the great wrestler who on Friday night at the Grand Opera House will attempt to pin Fred Bartl's shoulders to the mat five times in ninety minutes.

Charles M. Olson, the deceptive appearing German wrestler of St.
Louis, whose reach of 76 inches is the longest of any man in the game in the world and who can name among the men he has met and defeated on the mat such figures as Farmer Burns, Ono, the famous 210-pound Japanese wrestler and Jim Jitsu instructor at the Naval Academy in Annapolis, Oscar Mas-sen, Dan McLeod, former champion of the world, Oly Dunsdon, Shad Lick, the noted flat wrestler, William Baker, Jim Parr, the English champion, Dan McDonald and others, now has hopes of making a match with Demetral, the terrible Greek publisher who recently defeated Pons, the Frenchman in Chicago.

About fifteen years ago the great Farmer Burns was matched with "Stranger Lewis" in one of the hardest fought wrestling bouts ever occurring in Chicago. A little to one side of the platform sat a tall eyed German boy who seemed interested in nothing in particular and whose face was almost as expressive as the surface of a mummy will pond. He was about 12 years of age and his body was slight for even an undeveloped boy of his years. Burns won over the "stranger" and as he stepped from the platform he noticed the little German still sitting apart, but all stupidity had departed from his face. His attention was attracted to the lad and he spoke to him.

"How can I become a wrestler?"

asked the boy.

Burns gazed pityingly at the small frame and answered, "Oh, just start now and learn how to throw other boys on their backs."

The advice was given lightly, but it was taken, and within the past few years Farmer Burns has been twice put to the mat by the little, long-reaching German wrestler who has made a fortune at the wrestling game under the name of Charles M.
Olson. Olson is none other than that little German lad who took the advice of Farmer Burns literally and first taught himself the efficiency of half-Nelsons, arm locks, chanceries, strange holds and other details of putting an opponent flat upon his shoulders by practicing upon the street gamins on the corners and in the back alleys of the Windy City.

At the age of twenty Olson was considered a phenom in the turnvict gymnasiums of Chicago. He was the ready to enter professional bouts and began for a match. Working overtime as a machinist he displayed unusual thrift and saved enough money to post his first forfeit for a match. It was on the Pacific Coast that he first got into the game and for the past six years with one or two exceptions, he has not and defeated all of the best heavyweight of the world in catch-as-catch-can bouts.

Traveling about the country, Olson has, time after time been picked up as a "snicker" by different wrestlers, for he has never forgotten how to make his face appear as perfectly stupid as it was on the first day when he talked with Farmer Burns. It was this quality that deceived many opponents and besides his appearance is deceptive.
Slightly over 6 feet in height, Olson's legs taper up to a body that in repose does not give any indication of its possibilities.

A reach of 76 inches flat and grip of vise-like intensity, together with neck and shoulders that offer a rigid barrier to an opponent's efforts, are Olson's chief assets.

"Yes, I can reach all the way around a man and secure an embarassing hold far beyond the average wrestler and it is upon this that I have placed reliance," said Olson to a writer.

Olson's neck measurement is 18 inches and all over his sinewy body he is as "hard as nails." He has much the build of Robert Fitzsimmons, the pugilist, light upon his feet and corded with the iron-like endurance about the breast and back.

Olson is now 26 years of age.
About one year ago he was matched against Frank Gotch, now the champion heavyweight wrestler of America and he stayed with Gotch one hour and 45 minutes before the Iowa athlete secured the first fall.

Gotch won that bout from Olson but it took him almost three hours for him to do it, longer than the Iowa has ever struggled against any other man on the mat.
Harry Quinn, the man who took Fred Beal to New Orleans, took up Olson after seeing him defeat Oscar Massena at Burlington, Ia., about a year ago. Quinn had watched with much interest a match between Ono, the Jap, and Tom Frisbie at Annapolis. He learned that it had taken the Jap about two hours to put Frisbie away. Frisbie weighed 310 pounds and Quinn had seen him work. Quinn thought Olson would be a good proposition to match with the Jap and told him so. Olson stayed with Ono for one hour and twenty minutes and at the end of that time the Jap was completely exhausted and gave up the contest.

"I believe Olson will defeat Gotch within the next two years," said Quinn. All he needs is a little more weight. He now weighs 176 pounds and I believe he can put on 15 or 20 pounds more. When he does Gotch will have to look to his laurels.

Since September 1905 Olson has won 15 straight matches at Nashville, N. C., and he has now on deposit the tidy sum of $25,000. He owns a restaurant on Washington avenue, but relies on the wrestling game for profits.

It was Olson that by virtue of that stolid German stare made a match with Athos, the French wrestler, at the Standard Theater last Sunday afternoon and threw him in less than two minutes. Olson will wager $1000 that he can throw Athos 25 times within an hour. This offer has not yet been taken.

Many agree with Quinn in predicting that Olson will some day defeat Gotch and win the championship of America. The German is a self-made athlete and possesses more will power than the ordinary wrestler. The love of conquest instilled in him when he witnessed his first wrestling bout has grown stronger as he grew older and his youthfulness is a strong card in his favor. He is of the temperament that would have made him a successful fighter had he not turned to wrestling.

NEW PLAYERS ARE SIGNED

For Marion Team of the O.P.
League.

COLD SHOULDER GIVEN

Sandusky, Erie and Zanesville at Cleveland Meeting.

Local Season Will Open May First.
Players will Report April 15th—Baseball News.

At a meeting of the club owners of the Ohio and Pennsylvania league, held in Cleveland Tuesday, it was decided not to increase the circuit to ten clubs for the coming season. The meeting was attended by President O. Wollenweber, Director Ed. G.
Staiger, and Manager Ferd Drumm, of the local organization.

After returning from Cleveland Tuesday night, the local officials announced the greater part of the lineup of the Marion team as arranged for the coming season. A number of trades have been made and several positions have not been permanently filled, but the majority of the players who will appear here were made known.

The majority of the club owners at the meeting were willing to enlarge the circuit if Erie, Pa., were admitted, and this is where the hitch occurred. Frank Baumsteter, president of the Interstate League and half owner of the Erie team could not rescind from his original proposition of $2500 for the sale of the club to any of the other teams.
Zanesville and Sandusky refused to purchase Erie's release from the Interstate league at that price. Had teams been arranged with Erie, it is probable that the circuit would have been enlarged, but a warm fight would have been on between Sandusky and Zanesville for the tenth place in the circuit.

It was decided at the meeting to open the season on May 1, the first games to be played in the southern division in which Marion is located.
A schedule of 110 games will be arranged. It was decided that each city should have turnstiles at the gates. For two years several of the teams have failed to put in turnstiles, causing confusion in keeping track of the crowds, but the new rules will assist in avoiding trouble.
After quite an argument, it was decided to increase the salary limit from $1,500 to $1,800 plus the manager's salary. This amount will be enforced by President Morton with power to penalize all violations.

Charles Morton, as president of the league, was empowered to settle all disputes without reference to the board of directors. This will avoid all annoying delays on protested games, as has been the case when this matter would be settled at league meetings. But now, Morton can decide at once when the evidence is submitted.

The following clubs were represented at the meeting:
Akron—Maurice Snyder, John
Widner, Walter East.
Youngstown—Marty Hogan.
Mansfield—Paul Sturges, Cary Mc-Vey.

Marion—O. Wollenweber, E. J.
Staiger, Ferd Drumm.
Newcastle—A. C. Hyde.
Newark—T. V. Rutledge.
Lancaster—James Breen.
Sharon—G. Mahoney, E. H. Clepper,
John Boyle.

Garlie Lauzon, the Mexican catcher, on last season's team has been traded to Steubenville for Smith, a catcher, Ferral, a right fielder, and Housar, an infielder. As to Ingerton, the local magnates can make no announcement. An effort is being made to land him, and it is thought that he will wear a Marion uniform next season. Flood, Quinn, Miller, Stewart and Lucas, have all signed their contracts for the season. Geinette, a pitcher, hailing from Hamilton, Can., and another twirler named Burke, of Columbus, have been secured. Lusky, who caught a phenomenal game for Syracuse, in the York State League last year, will do the regular catching. Schaffer, a catcher of the National Cash Register team, at Dayton, will also be given a trial. The management has also signed a crack first baseman but as his release has not as yet been secured his name will not at present be made public. He will cost the club several hundred dollars before his release is secured.

Every position on the team has been filled with the exception of second base. Several men are under consideration for that position, and a good man is under consideration for short stop in the event the club falls to land Scotty Ingerton.

A meeting of the local directors will be held in the near future, and the location of the grounds decided upon. Two sites, both well situated, are under consideration. The park will be laid out as soon as possible and stands erected that will have seating capacity for about 3,000 just outside of the city limits, and within easy reach of the city car lines.

The Marion players will report for spring practice about April 15, and it is probable that a number of exhibition games will be played here before the opening of the season.
Sunday baseball will be played in this city, Lancaster and Newark, thus making it necessary to keep two teams idle each Sunday.

Bad Stomach Trouble Cured

Having been sick for the past two years with a bad stomach trouble, a friend gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.
They did me so much good that I bought a bottle of them and have used twelve bottles in all. Today I am well of a bad stomach trouble.—

EVERYTHING READY FOR PERFORMANCE

By Edward Shields Company
This Evening.

Special Matinee for School Children will be Given on Thursday Afternoon.

If there is any one in Marion that has not heard about the City Firemen's benefit to be held at the Grand, Wednesday and Thursday, they will please stand up and receive a reward. The fire boys have labored assiduously in selling tickets and have exceeded last season's record.

The fact that the Edward Shields company returns has made it easy for the fire fighters. This clever little company gave a great show last season and their return means an entire new program. The pictures from the local fire run made two weeks ago are perfect.
Miss Sherman has a new repertoire of specialties including the great chiarot race from Ben Hur. Edward Shields will picture San Francisco past and present in the same breezy manner he did Oregon last season.
Shields carries a trunk full of effects this season for the moving pictures.

A special matinee will be given Thursday afternoon. All schools will be dismissed at three o'clock and the performance will start at 3:30. Children will be admitted for 10 cents.

A Disastrous Collision.
South McAlester, I. T., Jan. 30.— Eight persons were injured, two probably fatally, by a collision of a Missouri, Kansas & Texas freight train and a local passenger train at Crowder City, I. T., Tuesday.
